MELTZER GAS STATION, AVON, ROBBED SATURDAY MORNING

County Detective George Tucker is working on several clues in the obbery of the gas station of the Meltzer Oil Company, Avon, which was broken into some time early Saturday morning. City Policeman Bours and Tucker investigating a call from the gas station, learned that some time between midnight Friday night and 6 clock Saturday morning, thieves had gained entrance to the office by breaking a side window and releasing the latch. Five gallons of oil and a flash light were taken and the cash register. which had been empty, was smashed.
